Dear Valued Community Member:

The Saginaw High School Cheer Team is an organization composed of dedicated young athletes who have a passion for promoting community spirit and a commitment to the art of cheerleading based on the principles of dedication, self-discipline, confidence, humility, and teamwork. The cheerleader experience aids in helping these young people grow qualities that extend far beyond high school cheer. Throughout the year, the cheerleaders perform at pep rallies, football games, volleyball games, basketball games, cheer competitions, and special events in our community.

The Saginaw High School Cheer Team has a season goal to earn a bid to the National High School Cheerleading Competition in Orlando, Florida. The team is currently seeking financial support through sponsorship to help cover the cost of competition fees and expenses not covered by our district budget.

Sponsorship levels are as follows:
