

Great ELAR Websites for Elementary Students and Parents

General Educational Resources

- Merriam Webster - The most comprehensive dictionary on the internet
- Acronym Finder - Helps students build vocabulary and study skills
- Quizlet – Allows you to create online flashcards and quizzes
- EasyBib – An easy tool to help create a correctly formatted bibliography
- Learner Interactives – A website with interactive lessons for all subjects
- Kid's Click - Search engine for young students
- Encyclopedia Britannica for Kids - Free Encyclopedia for reference

General ELAR Resources

- Time for Kids Homework Helper – A grammar, reading, and writing tool, plus a flash card creator
- BBC Literacy – Video clips and games for Reading and Writing
- ABCYa.com – Provides skills practice in language arts for K-5
- E-Learning – Interactive learning videos with practice for K-6
- Istation - Reinforce skills taught at school with an interactive and individualized program

Reading Resources

- Reading Rockets – Consists of research-based strategies for parents and educators
- FunBrain – Ebooks and reading games
- Reading Is Fundamental – Activities and booklists for elementary students
- Literary Devices – A website full of literary terms with definitions and examples
- Book Lists for Kids of All Ages - List for great books separated by category and age range
- Book Lists and Recommendations – Scholastic compiled a list of books for various age ranges
- International Children's Library – Multicultural digital library
- Reading Planet – Games, book reviews, and more!
- StoryNory – Collection of myths, fairy tales, and original stories
- TumbleBook Library – Online books, videos, and games
- ReadAloud– Resources that support read alouds at home

Vocabulary Resources

- Free Rice - Quiz game where correct answers help raise money for global hunger-multiple subjects
- Learn That – Root words and prefixes plus many other reference tools for words

Writing Resources

- My Story Maker – Students create their own digital stories
- Wordle – Create interactive word clouds
- Mad Libs for Kids – Fill in the blank to create funny stories
- Houghton Mifflin English K-5 – Writing prompts, games, and other resources
- One Look Reverse Dictionary – Uniquely designed to provide a list of words based on a concept
- Purdue OWL: Writing Center – An online writing center
- Grammar Slammer – A comprehensive list of grammar rules, plus a downloadable grammar checker
- Guide to Grammar and Writing – A bank of grammar quizzes, PowerPoints, handouts, etc.
- Spelling City – Game-based learning program for vocabulary, spelling, phonics, writing, and language arts