New Learning: Must Do

More information will be coming from your teacher for new learning the week of May 18-22.*

Choice 1: Read Aloud

Listen, participate, and enjoy as a parent or older sibling reads aloud your favorite nonfiction book or click use this link to listen to a new story.

<https://www.uniteforliteracy.com/>

Directions:

1. Think about the topic and what you learned about the topic tell it to yourself or a family member.
2. Answer the following questions:

If you could recommend this book to someone, who would it be? Why do you think they would like it? Talk, draw, or write about why they should read it.

Share your ideas with your family.

Choice 2: Language Exploration

Choice 3: Author’s Corner

Be a historian! Journal your feelings and activities throughout each day.

Step 1 – Choose your paper.

What are you going to draw or write on?

Step 2 – Start your journal.

Where are you going to write each day and when?

Step 3 – Focus on being a good observer.

Watch what’s going on around you and pay close attention to how you are feeling.

Step 4 – Write, draw, write, draw.

Step 5 – Save this as history. You can look back on this time later.
