Assignments, exams, expectations outside of the classroom:

We will send home weekly family engagement sheet. It will have suggestions and ideas for things to do with your child as an extension of our learning in class. We strongly encourage you to set aside time to read stories and talk about them with your child.

Attendance/Tardy Policy/Make-Up Work:

Please see website for details.

Classroom Expectations:

Every Thursday we will send home a Communication Folder with information from the school, as well as, student work. Newsletters will go home monthly. A big part of Pre-K is learning academic, social, and emotional skills. As we work on these skills, we will communicate with you if have concerns in any area.

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity values the work of individuals regardless if it is another student's work, a researcher, or author. The pursuit of learning requires each student to be responsible for his or her academic work. Academic dishonesty is not tolerated in our schools. Academic dishonesty, includes cheating, copying the work of another student, plagiarism, and unauthorized communication between students during an examination. The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty shall be based on the judgment of the classroom teacher or other supervising professional employee and considers written materials, observation, or information from students. Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty shall be subject to disciplinary and/or academic penalties. The teacher and campus administrator shall jointly determine such action.
