Accident & Health

Protection when your child needs it most

Student Accident Insurance is designed to help shield your family from the financial burdens that may arise from an accident. While in class, on a field trip, or participating in school sponsored sports your child is exposed to many risks. Our insurance plans give you the opportunity to ensure they are covered when the unexpected occurs.

Highlights

- Accidental Death & Dismemberment coverage kicks in if your child is injured in a serious accident
- Accident Medical Expense benefits help alleviate costs of injuries that may land your child in the hospital
- School Coverage option allows for coverage while on school premise and while participating in school sponsored activities
- 24 Hours Coverage option allows for the coverage to expand 24 hours a day, anywhere in the world
- Sports Coverage for Interscholastic Football protects high risk sports activities
- Most coverage will pay in addition to any other insurance you may have.

Choose the Plan that is Right for You

The following coverages allow you to choose the right level of protection for your participating student. These coverages are available in two limits outlined by Plan A and Plan B as described in the following sections and on the enrollment form. You may select from the following coverage options:

Benefits

Accidental Death & Dismemberment Benefits

If the Insured Person is injured in a covered accident and suffers any of the losses shown in the Schedule of Covered Losses below within 365 days, we will pay the benefit amount shown for that loss. If more than one loss occurs in the same accident, only one benefit, the largest, will be paid.

“Loss of Hand” means complete severance, as determined by a Physician, of at least four (4) fingers at or above the metacarpal phalangeal joint, proximal to the torso, on the same hand or at least three (3) fingers and the thumb on the same hand. “Loss of Foot” means the complete severance of a foot through or above the ankle joint.

“Loss of Sight” means permanent loss of vision. Remaining vision must be no better than 20/200 using a corrective aid or device, as determined by a Physician. “Loss of Sight of One Eye” means permanent loss of vision of one eye. “Loss of Speech” means the permanent, irrecoverable and total loss of the capability of speech without the aid of mechanical devices, as determined by a Physician. “Loss of Hearing” means permanent, irrecoverable and total deafness, as determined by a Physician, with an auditory threshold of more than 90 decibels in each ear. “Loss of Thumb and Index Finger” means complete severance, through the metacarpal phalangeal joints, proximal to the torso, of the thumb and index finger of the same hand, as determined by a Physician.

Payment Clauses & Exclusions

Multiple Losses Maximum Payment Clauses

For the types of coverage listed below, if an Insured has multiple losses as the result of one accident, the Insurer pays only the single largest benefit amount applicable:

- Accidental Loss of Life & Dismemberment

Your beneficiary for the loss of life benefit shall be the beneficiary you name on the enrollment form.

Plan Exclusions

Insurance does not apply to any accident, accidental bodily injury or loss when: 1) the United States of America has imposed any trade or economic sanctions prohibiting insurance of any accident, accidental bodily injury or Loss; or 2) there is any other legal prohibition against providing insurance of any accident, accidental bodily injury or loss.

In addition, insurance does not apply to any accident, accidental bodily injury or loss caused by or resulting from, directly or indirectly:

- an Insured Person's emotional trauma, mental or physical illness, disease, pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage, bacterial or viral infection, bodily malfunctions or medical or surgical treatment thereof. This exclusion does not apply to an Insured Person's bacterial infection caused by an accident or from accidental consumption of a substance contaminated by bacteria;
- an Insured Person's an insured person's suicide, attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury;
- an Insured Person being engaged in or participating in interscholastic sports (except as provided by the Policy);
- an Insured Person being intoxicated at the time of an Accident. Intoxication is defined by the laws of the jurisdiction where such accident occurs. If such jurisdiction does not have a law to define Intoxication, then under this policy it will mean a blood alcohol content of .08 or greater;
- an Insured Person being under the influence of any narcotic or other controlled substance or intentionally ingesting or inhaling any poison gas or fumes at the time of an accident. This exclusion does not apply if any narcotic or other controlled substance is taken and used as prescribed by a Physician;
- an Insured Person participating in active military service with the armed forces of any country or established international authority. However, this exclusion does not apply to the first sixty consecutive days of active military service;
- an Insured Person being in, entering, or exiting any aircraft owned, leased or operated by the Policyholder or on the Policyholder's behalf; or operated by an employee of the Policyholder on the Policyholder's behalf;
- an Insured Person riding as a passenger in, entering, or exiting any aircraft while acting or training as a pilot or crew member; this does not apply to passengers temporarily performing pilot or crew functions in a life-threatening emergency;
- an Insured Person's participation in Specialized Aviation Activities;
- war, undeclared war, civil war, insurrection, rebellion, revolution, warlike acts by a military force or personnel, any action taken in hindering or defending against any of these, the destruction or seizure of property for a military purpose, or any consequences of any of these acts regardless of any other direct or indirect cause or event, whether covered or not, contributing in any sequence to the loss.

The Benefit Amount for Accident Medical Expense does not apply to charges and services

- for which an Insured Person has no obligation to pay;
- for any injury where worker's compensation benefits or occupational injury benefits are payable;
- for any injury occurring while fighting, except in self-defense;
- for treatment that is educational, experimental or investigational in nature or that does not constitute accepted medical practice;
- for treatment by a person employed or retained by the Policyholder;
- for treatment involving conditions caused by Repetitive Motion Injuries or cumulative trauma and not as the result of an accidental bodily injury;
- personal comfort or convenience items, such as but not limited to, hospital telephone charges, television rental, internet access, barber services or guest meals while confined in a Hospital; or
- routine physical exams that are not the result of an accidental bodily injury.

Claims

How to File a Claim
