Course Description:

Advisory combines social and emotional learning with accountability to establish a mindset that creates a lifelong learner. Advisory supports content learning by using AVID strategies, teaching and guiding organization, strengthening peer relationships and collaboration, and implementing independent data tracking.

Course Goals:

Students who complete this course successfully will be able to:

Develop a positive learning community to achieve school and life success.

Develop awareness and understanding of living a healthy lifestyle and making good choices.

Use social awareness and interpersonal skills to establish, develop, and maintain positive relationships.

Develop social awareness to establish and maintain positive relationships.

Develop leadership skills to achieve a service mindset.

Reflect on this year's learning and know how to incorporate it into student's real life, real community and the world.

Student Evaluation:

The grading system for this course is as follows:

- Grade averaged 60% Major 40% Minor
- Major grades – tests (including District Common Assessments, six weeks assessments), projects, final essays, research papers, presentations, Binder and Planner checks; minimum three per six weeks
- Minor grades – quizzes, daily assignments, journals, Planner assignments; minimum four per six weeks
- Semester exams will count 1/7 of the semester grade

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity values the work of individuals regardless if it is another student’s work, a researcher, or author. The pursuit of learning requires each student to be responsible for his or her academic work.

Academic dishonesty is not tolerated in our schools. Academic dishonesty includes cheating, copying the work of another student, plagiarism, and unauthorized communication between students during an examination.

The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty shall be based on the judgment of the classroom teacher or other supervising professional employee and considers written materials, observation, or information from students. Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty shall be subject to disciplinary and/or academic penalties. The teacher and campus administrator shall jointly determine such action.
