Course Description:

Designed for students with grade level proficiency in language arts. Communication skills are reinforced as the student improves proficiency in sentence structure and learns the components of a well-developed paragraph through a process approach to writing. Grammar, spelling, vocabulary instruction, and research skills are emphasized.

Course Goals:

Students who complete this course successfully will be able to:

- Students will increase the volume of their reading
- Students will increase the complexity of their reading
- Students will develop an understanding of multiple genres
- Students will write about something they know, care a lot about, and write for real reasons

Student Evaluation:

The grading system for this course is as follows:

- Grade averaged 60% Major 40% Minor
- Major grades – tests (including District Common Assessments, six weeks assessments, projects, final essays, research papers, presentations); minimum three per six weeks
- Minor grades – quizzes, daily assignments, journals; minimum four per six weeks
- Semester exams will count 1/7 of the semester grade
- A letter system (S, N, U) is used to report a student's conduct based on proper/responsive conduct and citizenship
- Per Board Policy EIA (LOCAL), "The District shall permit a student who meets the criteria detailed in the grading guidelines a reasonable opportunity to redo an assignment or retake a test for which the student received a failing grade. This policy applies only to initial identified major grades and does not apply to daily assignments, quizzes, six-week test, and semester final examinations. Upon reteach and retest, the new test, project, etc. recorded will be a high score of 70%.

Assignments, exams, expectations outside of the classroom:

Students are expected to read for at least 15 minutes every night, they will also have a weekly article of the week that will require students to write a one-page reflection. Students will occasionally have projects that will require time outside of the classroom to complete, please be aware of due dates. Students will also assignments that are due in Canvas, so they will need to plan on having access technology.
