

MUSICALS	The Director of Fine Arts approves all musicals.
ONE ACT PLAY	The campus principal approves all One Act Plays.
AP ART	According to College Board, the goal for AP Art and Design students is to “create a portfolio of college-level work and submit it for evaluation.” This expectation of college-level thought, planning, research, and production may allow for artwork that is not considered suitable for display in our local showcase, highlighting art from students in kindergarten through 12 th grades. Requests for information must be made in writing to invoke the Public Information Act. Requests must be submitted to the district using one of three official avenues: via email to info@ems-isd.net , by mail addressed to the EMS ISD Communications Office, or delivered in person to the Communications Office at the district administration building. Requests not submitted through these defined avenues are not considered an official request to the district and, in accordance with public information law, the district is not obligated to respond.
PORTFOLIOS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• AP Art students will create their art portfolio (investigation, experimentation, communication, and selected works) according to the regulations and expectations of College Board.• AP Art teachers and coaches will provide guidance throughout the creation process, ensuring the rules of the College Board are clearly followed.• AP Portfolios can be entered into the district’s art showcase to be judged for placement and scholarship.• After the judging is completed by third party, impartial experts, the AP Art portfolios will be considered by the Director and Assistant Director of Fine Arts to determine if any pieces should be omitted from the floor display before opening the doors for our community.• Possible exclusion from the public show involves displays that include activities, items, or references to prohibited behaviors according to the EMS ISD Student Code of Conduct and/or deemed inappropriate for audiences of all ages.• AP Art teachers and coaches will help prepare students and parents for the possibility of removal from the public show in advance should the student’s work reflect any questionable content for the public showcase.• EMS ISD administration reserves the right to omit artwork from any EMS ISD art showcase, EMS ISD public or digital display, or EMS ISD associated social media outlet.
